Monsieur Achmad Sukarno, President of the Republic of Indonesia, arrived on the 26th of June, via Bonn, at the Kloten airport on his official visit to the Confederation, accompanied by his Foreign Minister, and a large suite.

On descending, from the air-liner he was greeted by Monsieur Max Petitpierre, Swiss Foreign Minister, Counsellor of Legation, M. A. Dominici, Chef du Protocol, and members of the Government of the canton of Zurich.

After a short stay, the distinguished guests left for Berne; on their arrival at the Berne-Weissenbühl station, they were greeted by Dr. Markus Feldmann, President of the Swiss Confederation, who was accompanied by the Federal Chancellor, the President of the Government of the canton of Berne, and the Mayor of the town of Berne.

The following day, the Indonesian President was officially received at the Palais Fédéral by the Swiss President, and members of the Federal Council. Cordial greetings were exchanged by the two Heads of State, after which the guests were driven in open carriages to the "Wattenwyl Haus", where they were introduced to the Heads of Foreign Missions accredited to the Confederation.

In accordance with a wish expressed by Monsieur Sukarno a visit was paid in the afternoon to the Roamer Watch Company in Solothurn, one of the largest watch manufacturing companies in Switzerland, employing 1,200 workers, he was accompanied by Federal Councillor Holenstein. On their return to the Federal capital a Banquet was given to the visitors at the Bellvue Palace Hotel, at which all the members of the Federal Council were present, as well as high ranking military and state officials.

In the fourth annual report, covering the year 1955, the Swiss National Fund for Scientific Research states that of 319 requests for support, 177 have been granted, thirty-five refused, two referred to other institutions, and twenty-five were withdrawn by their authors; eighty applications are still under consideration. For the 177 research schemes which were approved, sums totalling nearly 3,100,000 Swiss francs have been made available. To this amount must be added another 423,000 Swiss francs expended as stipends or subsidies for ninety-six young scientists. Amounts of 100,000 Swiss francs each have been set aside for medical and for legal research.

During the first three months of this year Switzerland imported 32,800 motor vehicles, or 4,000 more than in the corresponding period of last year. In the automobile sector the figure is 18,902, representing a total of 107.2 million Swiss francs. Two-wheeled vehicles amounted to 13,909 machines, valued at 11.2 million Swiss francs.
