SWISS CLUB — DUNFERMLINE.

Our compatriots gathered on 21st November at the Castleblair Canteen for the annual Whist Drive. Some forty members with their friends attended and filled the hall to capacity.

Mr. Frick extended a very hearty welcome to everyone and drew special attention to the outstanding Tombola prizes which had been made available for this occasion. Wishing us all an enjoyable evening and good luck with the cards, he handed the responsibility over to our Card Master, Mr. Ernest Vogel.

A most delicious supper served by Miss Hunter followed the Card Game. We always look forward to the "St. Galler Schueblig" from Mr. O. Bartholdi, London.

Our President then announced the winners of the various prizes which were as follows:—

Ladies: 1st prize, Miss Elizabeth Eugster; 2nd prize, Miss Trudy Kaelin; Consolation prize, Mrs. Jean Mitchell.

Gents: 1st prize, Mr. M. Peer; 2nd prize, Mr. H. Spitz; Consolation prize: Mr. G. Huber.

The prizes for the best scores at half-time, were won by Miss Ursula Tanner and Mr. P. Imhof.

The Tombola prizes were drawn as follows:

1st prize, Mrs. Jean Mitchell; 2nd prize, Mr. Andrew Mitchell; 3rd prize, Mr. Ernest Vogel; 4th prize, Miss Lilian Probst.

We wish to thank Mrs. Frick for presenting these lovely prizes.

A vote of thanks was proposed to all those who had helped with the arrangements to give us such an enjoyable evening. The Entertainments Committee appreciates the support it receives and is looking forward to a full turn out again to our next function in January 1958.

FETE SUISSE.

The General Committee of the "Fête Suisse" held its Annual Meeting at 79, Endell Street, on Friday, November 29th.

The President, Mr. A. Renou, reported on the last performance, and Mr. C. Nater presented the accounts, which showed a small credit balance. Both the President and the Hon. Treasurer, as well as the committee, were thanked for the services they had so well rendered.

The election for the committee for the year 1958 then took place under the Presidency of Mr. Ch. Chapuis. The President and the outgoing committee were re-elected unanimously.

Mr. Renou acquainted the Meeting as to the arrangements already nearly complete for the next "Fête Suisse", which will take place on Thursday, April 17th 1958, at the Central Hall, Westminster, on which occasion the "Bürgermusik" Lucerne, the "Jodlerklub Pilatus" and a "Fahnenschwinger" will be the principal performers.

The Meeting closed at 8 p.m.
