THE CENTENARY OF A BIG SWISS BANK

The Swiss Bank Corporation celebrated a double anniversary this year. It is a hundred years and fifty years respectively in fact since the establishment of the two banks whose merger resulted in the foundation of the present bank, with its head office in Zurich. In order to commemorate the occasion, the Swiss Bank Corporation created a special fund with a capital of 10 million Swiss francs for the purpose of encouraging intellectual, artistic and scientific work in Switzerland. A SWISS FLORAL CLOCK IN BRUSSELS

On the occasion of the 35th International Fair in Brussels, the Swiss Watchmaking Federation donated a floral clock to the town of Brussels. This clock, which is worked by electricity, is over 16 feet in diameter and has hands over 6½ feet long. It was attractively installed next to a pool within the grounds of the International Fair.
