* * *

We regret to announce the death of two of our readers, Miss H. Sidler, of Bolthurst Farm, Pains Hill, Limpsfield, Surrey, and Mr. J. J. Fischer, of 32 Church Road, New Mills, near Stockport, Cheshire. We extend our deep sympathy to their relatives.

AN INTERESTING CONCERT

Miss Annette Weisbrod, daughter of our compatriot Mr. R. Weisbrod, the painter, of Anchor Mill, Darwen, Lancashire, is giving another piano recital at Wigmore Hall in London on Friday, 11th October.

Miss Weisbrod is well known in the Colony and has delighted us on several occasions with her art. She was born in Blackburn in 1937 and began to play the piano at an early age. She was educated at Huyton College, Liverpool, and has studied the piano since 1955 under such eminent pianists as Klaus Linder, Paul Baumgartner and James Ching. She has given a number of concerts in this country and on the Continent, and in 1961 she was among the finalists in the Busoni Competition at Bolzano.

Her recital in October promises to be a great treat. It will include Beethoven, Schubert, Schumann, as well as Ravel and Janacek.

Miss Weisbrod will also play in the BBC Home Service at 9.25 a.m. on 8th October 1963.

We should like to recommend the sale of these cards. All the proceeds will be devoted to the work of the Trust.

SWISS RIFLE ASSOCIATION, LONDON

On their return to London the members of the Swiss Rifle Association who had been to Zürich to compete at the Federal Shooting Festival, were invited to dinner at the Glendower Hotel by Mr. Alfred Schmid, President of the Association.

To the regret of all those present, Mr. Adolf Schmid, a veteran marksman who has taken part in every Federal Shooting Festival and who also obtained excellent results in Zürich, missed the party as he was still holidaying in Switzerland.
