THE LONDON GROUP OF THE NOUVELLE

SOCIETE HELVETIQUE PRESENTS:

"The Marriage of Mr. Mississippi"

On Wednesday, 29th November, at 8 p.m., the London Group of the N.S.H. will present a FILM SHOW at the Assembly Hall, Royal Commonwealth Society, 16-20 Craven Street (between Strand and Northumberland Avenue). The evening will start with a B.P. film on the dangerous life-saving work of the Air Rescue Guard of Switzerland "Dial Double One". The main feature will be "Die Heirat des Herrn Mississippi" (German dialogue), a Praesens film version of the famous play by Friedrich Duerrenmatt. The film is presented by courtesy of the "Pro Helvetia" Foundation. It is not suitable for children.

Admission tickets at 2/6 (unreserved) and 5/- (reserved but not numbered) are obtainable from the Swiss National Tourist Office, Swiss Centre, 1 New Coventry Street, W.1. Written applications should be accompanied by remittance and stamped/addressed envelope. Tickets may also be had at the door on the evening of the show. All Swiss and their friends are welcome.

"SWISS OBSERVER" GIFT SUBSCRIPTIONS

Perhaps nowhere as rapidly as in the printing trade have rates gone up. This increasingly affects the "S.O." But we have made every effort to stave off passing increases on to our readers and advertisers. It is some time now since our advertising rates have gone up, even longer since the subscription was fixed at 35/- p.a. But the cost of living has risen, and every year a number of our most loyal readers find that they just cannot afford even a modest 35/-. That is why, particularly for Christmas, we should like to recommend readers our GIFT SUBSCRIPTION SCHEME to old-age pensioners, which we introduced a few years ago. It is entirely anonymous, i.e. only the Editor knows who pays for whom. The many letters received testify to the gratitude of the recipients.

Again, this is a gift with a dual purpose — it gives pleasure to some old man or woman, and at the same time it keeps up our circulation, which is necessary if we want to stay alive, leave alone to pay our way.

Needless to say, gift subscriptions to personal friends are also most welcome. If an order is received with remittance of 35/- (one year), or 18/- (6 months) or 9/6 (3 months) by 12th December, we shall start the new subscription with the DOUBLE CHRISTMAS NUMBER, accompanied by a suitable gift card so that the recipient receives it by Christmas. If we find that the intended new subscriber is already on our list, we should inform the donor immediately.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We wish to thank the following subscribers for adding donations to their subscriptions and/or for taking out or renewing gift subscriptions to old-age pensioners or friends:

Mrs. J. Dubs, Mrs. S. A. Eisenegger, Mrs. H. Ellison, Mrs. L. L. Jaggard, Mrs. M. J. Lowe, Consul E. Ribi (Zagreb) and Messrs. J. M. Bader, H. H. Baumann, F. Burri, G. Gysi, F. Liniger, F. A. de Maria, J. Perrin, W. R. Schweizer, J. Wegmann (Bassersdorf), M. Wiesendanger, A. Zimmermann, W. Zuber.

We are most grateful for their kind and welcome support.

PIANO RECITAL AT WIGMORE HALL

We should like to draw readers' attention to a piano recital at Wigmore Hall in London on Saturday, 2nd December, at 3 p.m. The artist is Swedish, Lennart Rabes, but no stranger to the Swiss Community. Having many ties with Switzerland, he consented to play the organ at the German-speaking Swiss Church where his art and great talent have added special musical distinction to the services.

Mr. Rabes was born at Eskilstuna in Sweden, and he had his first piano lessons at the age of four and a half years. He was only nine when he started taking lessons in conducting with the former chief conductor of "Konsertforeningen", Stockholm, Carl Garaguly, and several famous conductors were his teachers later. He was taught by the eminent Swedish piano tutor Stina Sundell, and amongst his piano teachers figured such great names as Bela Siki (Zurich), Enrica Cavallo (Milan) and Magda Tagliaferro (Paris).

Lennart Rabes was barely 15 when he made his début with the Stockholm "Konsertforeningen" as conductor and pianist. Two years later, he was awarded the Royal scholarship in Stockholm. Since then he has gone from strength to strength and given successful concerts in many European countries.

For his piano recital in London, which is under the patronage of the Swedish Chargé d'Affaires, he has chosen Johan H. Roman's Suite in G. minor and Franck's Prelude, Chorale and Fugue, followed by three Concert Studies by Liszt. The second part will be devoted to Bartok and Debussy, including six Dances from "Mikrokosmos" by the former.
