OBITUARIES

We announce with deep regret the death of Mr. Ernest Rietmann, of 9a Wensleydale Road, Hampton-on-Thames, Middlesex, who died in Malaga/Spain at the age of 73. He hailed from Utwil on the Lake of Constance, and he was the last of his generation of Rietmanns, but his son will carry on the name. We express our warm sympathy to his family, especially to his wife, Mrs. Evelyn Rietmann née Adams, to whom he was married for 43 years.

* * *

It grieves us to announce the sudden death due to cerebral haemorrhage of Annette, daughter of Monsieur and Madame Pierre Bringolf, Swiss Embassy, Makédonon 8, Athens 601, Greece. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to them and their two sons in their bereavement.

* * *

It is with deep regret that we announce the death of Mr. August Kern, for many years in London and Liverpool as European Director of Standard Brands. He was very widely travelled and recorded his experiences in "Fünzig Jahre Weltenbummler". He retired to Kuesnacht a few years ago. We express our warm sympathy to his daughter Mrs. Vreni Shann and the other members of the family.

CORRECTION

For good order's sake, we should like to point out a mistake which was printed in the curriculum vitae of the new Swiss Ambassador. We were informed that Monsieur Keller had taken up his duties at Observer of the Federal Political Department at the European Headquarters of UNO and Permanent Representative with the other European organisations in Geneva in 1960. This is incorrect, and the figure should read 1966.

We apologise for the error.
