NEWS FROM THE COLONY

BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES

The following readers will be celebrating wedding anniversaries: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fuchs, 52 years on 15th and Mr. and Mrs. H. Humbel, 33 years on 24th September.

Birthdays will be celebrated by Mrs. A. Boog on 20th September—she will be 80 on that day. May we send belated greetings also to her husband; we have just heard that he was 89 on 22nd July. Mr. W. B. Sigerist (Territet, Vaud) will be 80 on 23rd September; although he will be remembered with affection by many for his activities whilst in London, his modesty will not allow us to give a detailed account. On 25th September, Mr. M. Rothlisberger will be 72. Mr. W. Burren will have his 64th birthday on 4th and Mr. H. Humbel his 66th on 5th October.

Many happy returns to all who will be celebrating birthdays and anniversaries within the next few weeks.

OBITUARY

We have the sad duty of announcing the death of Mr. Jules Keller, of 35 Northwick Avenue, Harrow. He passed away in his sleep on 29th August 1971. We are also sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Henry Pelling, of 59 Blackborough Road, SW16, at the age of 79.

MR. GABRIEL GODET, 80

A special after-service "agape" with wine and cake was held in honour of Mr. Gabriel Godet on Sunday, 29th August. On that very day, Mr. Godet was 80 years old. He came to this country in 1916 after having served part of the 1914 mobilisation and briefly worked in Paris. He worked in London at the Credit Lyonnais and the Banca Commerciale Italiana.

His activities in the Swiss Colony were centered on the Swiss Church and the Swiss YMCA. He became a member of the Consistoire in 1924 and is still Honorary Member. For over 40 years he was the Church's Treasurer and he is one of the lasting, valiant members of the French-Swiss YMCA group in London, an association of Swiss Christians highly active in the past, particularly in the days of the late Alfred Braun.

Mr. Godet is still active with his visiting for the Church and his participation with the work of the Swiss Benevolent Society. He is busy in retirement, having acted as the "Gideon's" accountant until a few years ago, and working now at the Evangelical Library at Marylebone.

We should like to congratulate him most sincerely and wish him many more years of health and vitality.
