never-ending pilgrimage to these centres of bounty, some of us, certainly the younger generation, getting six and more helpings.

All the time discreet recorded music, consisting mainly of "Laendlers" and "Yodlers" helped to create a real "Heimatstimmung" and creating a really warm and friendly atmosphere.

We came now to the highlight of the evening, which should have been a presentation to Mr. and Mrs. R. Born but had to be done in their absence. On view was a lovely inscribed silver salver, a gift of the Club to show them their deep appreciation for all the support and affection they had given to us. It was then for the President of the Yorkshire Swiss Club to entrust our new Vice-Consul, Mr. Wegmueller with the task of delivering to them a token of affection and esteem of their compatriots across the Pennines, coupled with the good wishes for a quick recovery in Berne. After this everybody was able to sign a good-wish message to our Consul-General.

We could now again revert to our social activities and as the music gradually switched to dancing tunes, the floor was soon taken over for what must have been a most agreeable physical exercise for many, of the highest "pop" standard, but not everybody's cup of tea.

This happy blend of dance, talk and drink made us not realise how quickly the time had arrived for us to return to our homes, near or far, happy in the knowledge to be looked after so well by a devoted Committee, whom we can only thank by our massive attendance, hoping to meet again under similar circumstances.

Compatriot entertains Jersey team to the Commonwealth Games

Mr. Albert Gluck, Swiss proprietor of the Orpheus Club at St. Mary-at-Hill, Eastcheap and of the Presscala Club, Fleet Street, has a blow at a most authentically Swiss instrument. This attempt at re-living memories of the mountain freshness of the home country took place at a recent dinner at the Presscala Club for the 11-man Jersey team who were on their way to the Commonwealth Games in Christchurch, New Zealand. They were entertained by the Swiss Cheese Union and one of the leading exporters of Swiss cheese to the Channel Islands, Motto Foods Ltd. The man on the receiving end of the alphorn is Mr. Gabor Oliver, Sales Promotion Manager of the Swiss Cheese Union.

Says Mr. Oliver: "People in Jersey and Guernsey have a far higher per capita consumption of genuine Swiss cheese than anywhere in the UK. The reason for this is that they have a completely different attitude to life compared with British people - they are more continental and so, like the continentals, view Swiss cheese as part of a staple diet as opposed to a luxury item".

"Entertaining the team was a goodwill gesture to the Island's Swiss cheese distributors, some of whom are closely associated with athletics".

Adds Mr. Gluck: "I am very keen on sports of all kinds and I was delighted to be entertaining the team on behalf of the Swiss Cheese Union".
