tourist statistics show that visitors from Spain spent 13,636 overnights in Berne during 1975 – a 3.6 increase over the previous year.

Spain is now Berne's sixth biggest tourist market after West Germany, the United States, Italy, France and Britain.

IT'S BASLE AGAIN!

From October 23 until November 1, 1976, SNOW, World Exhibition for Ski, Snow and Winter Sports will be taking the stage for the second time in the halls of the Swiss Industries Fair, Basle.

As was learnt at the meeting of the Organization Committee for SNOW 76, the international bodies of the winter sports sector will again be holding their meetings in Basle during this exhibition.

Under the chairmanship of Marc Hodler, President of the FIS, Fédération internationale du Ski, leading personalities in the world of skiing are members of the Committee of Patrons for this year's SNOW.

As organiser of SNOW, the Swiss Industries Fair has produced an attractive audio-visual programme which will be used to inform both the exhibiting circles and sporting associations, as well as the general public. Several special displays and attractions are being prepared and these will supplement the supply of goods and the publicity for tourism.

THE LUCERNE FESTIVAL STRINGS COME OF AGE

The Lucerne Festival Strings, inaugurated on the occasion of the International Festival of Music in 1956 and now an internationally established chamber orchestra, will celebrate its 20th anniversary this year. In addition to extensive concert tours throughout the world, the ensemble has also made a name for itself with numerous records under the direction of its co-founder Rudolf Baumgartner. One of the most recent of these, accompanied by the Lucerne piano virtuoso, Hubert Harry, combines the Concerto for Piano and Orchestra in D minor BWV 1052 by J. S. Bach and the Concerto for Piano and Orchestra in C major K 415 by W. A. Mozart. This record is available under the label ARMIDA HH-133.

THE LUCERNE KURSAAL CASINO TO BE MODERNISED

The Kursaal, built in 1882 during the "Belle Epoque", is to undergo rejuvenation treatment before its 100th anniversary. The renovation includes a new dance hall and night club, reconstruction of the foyer and gaming room (the latter with incorporation of a bar) and renewal of the garden restaurant, in addition to complete renovation of the conference and banquet rooms on the 1st floor. The façade, under official protection, is to be restored but not altered. The establishment will remain open during the "treatment" and reconditioning work should be completed by June this year. A modernised Lucerne Kursaal will then be ready in time to welcome guests for the 1976 season.

SPECIAL EXHIBITIONS AT THE LUCERNE TRANSPORT MUSEUM

28th April – 27th June

Paintings with astronomical subjects.

April – July:

Caricatures and drawings on the theme of astronauts.

April – Sept. (probable)

Outdoor exhibition by the Swiss Federal Railways of locomotives and rolling stock in addition to existing exhibits.

NEW TUNNEL LINK NEARING COMPLETION

Almost exactly 150 years after the birth of Louis Favre, the man who built the 14.9 km Gotthard railway tunnel in 1880, Italian and Swiss construction workers shook hands again. This time it was to mark the occasion of the meeting of the two teams in the middle of the new Gotthard road tunnel. The 16 km tunnel, which will form part of the N2 Basle-Chiasso highway, is expected to carry its first traffic in about four years from now.
