EVERYBODY HAD A BALL AT THE BALL!

From the two pictures (left) it is obvious that a good time was had by one and all at the dance held at the Swiss Youth Centre at the John Southworth Centre following the 1st August celebrations in the Swiss Church. The top picture proves that dancing was much the in thing with people of all ages joining in the fun. Our Ambassador and Mme. Thalman along with various members of our Embassy staff also popped in to see the fun. The inner was also not forgotten as the second picture shows. Pastor Renou of our French speaking church was on hand to help distribute the goodies while Pierre Beguin, former editor of the Swiss Observer had obviously made up his mind to sample the wares. Without doubt a good time was had by one and all and a repeat of the event is eagerly expected for next year. WGS
