RIFLE ASSOCIATION DINNER GOES WITH A BANG!

"Grümpel-Schiessen"

On 4th November, 1977, the Swiss Rifle Association celebrated the end of its successful shooting season with the Annual Dinner and Dance at the Devonshire Restaurant Stonehouse, Bishopsgate, EC2. It was well prepared and worked out to suit the occasion.

With the invitation a carefully drawn street map, with the assurance that there would be no trouble, was sent to all invited, and so nobody who followed the route had any trouble in finding the place, in spite of blackouts and difficult one-way systems. Nearly all the guests arrived safely and on time.

The first to arrive could see the proud smile of Armin Lötscher, putting the finishing touches to the marvellous Gift- and Tombola-Table. It was a real beauty to look at and served as an appetizer on its own with all the good joints of pork and the vintage bottles of wine and other valuable prizes. It made the sale of tombola tickets a pleasure and people eagerly opened their envelopes to find a "merci" or a number inside. On the opposite side, in a modest corner, you could see the secretary, Brian Kett, silently with a critical look checking the arrangement of the trophies and prizes, and he was satisfied with his work. Everything was set out with taste and it made its presence felt, thus showing that the achievement of fine sportsmanship was celebrated here under the modest disguise of a jolly name "Grümpel-Schiessen".

After a well prepared and efficiently served dinner the toasts and replies followed each other in short and crisp words of friendly welcome and deep gratitude for the spirit of friendship and fair competition. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Glauser of the Swiss Embassy, Mr. and Mrs. Slater of the Surrey Rifle Association, Mr. and Mrs. Adams of the Kensington Rifle and Pistol Club and Mr. and Mrs. Godliman of the Marylebone Rifle and Pistol Club.

After a brief account of the activities: the matches they had lost and won; the new discipline that had been introduced this year; the pistol shooting, which had attracted great interest; the President, Marcel Bucherer, was sized-up by the ladies who tried to guess his weight to win the Ladies' Competition. After much laughter and discussion he was put on the scales and the winner was announced.

Then came the most important event of the evening, the presentation of the trophies and prizes. For the first time some ladies were among those who came forward, and were applauded with enthusiasm. The trophies went to the top crackshots M. Bucherer, P. Fisher, B. Kett and L. Jobin, and had there been a special Ladies' Trophy one would have wondered whether Mrs. Tresch or Mrs. Schärer would have taken it.

Happy dancing with games and much entertainment until 1 a.m. made the evening one to remember, a successful evening which crowned a successful shooting season. Special thanks went to the organisers, the secretary Brian Kett and Armin Lötscher, and the management and staff of the Devonshire Restaurant.

P.B.

Admiring glances being cast at some of the really splendid tombola prizes.

And which crackshot wouldn't like to be presented with one of these trophies?
