THE ARTS

Premiere for Dünki

THERE are few young composers who attempt such a complicated composition as an opera, and the number of those whose first work gets on the stage is even smaller.

On June 3 and 4, a chamber opera by the young Swiss composer Jean-Jacques Dünki will have its world premiere at the Almeida Theatre in London, thanks to a commission from Swiss conductor and patron Paul Sacher and sponsorship from the Pro Helvetia Foundation.

"Prokrustes, or the Laws of Hospitality" is a 50-minute chamber opera which is based on the Theseus legend. It will form part of the Almeida Festival this year.

Jean-Jacques Dünki, who is well known in Europe as a pianist, studied at the Basle Musikakademie, in West Berlin and in America. He has done post-graduate work in London with Peter Feuchtwanger and Hans Keller, and won the Schoenberg Piano Competition in 1981.
