If you want to fly from Belgrade, Buenos Aires, Oran, Santiago, S Tehran or Zagreb, it's sample Swissair's

There is no direct flight from the UK by a British airline to any of these points - which makes Swissair a natural preference.

You will find other surprises in our timetable too. For instance, there are over 70 worldwide destinations on our network which connect with our regular flights from London, Manchester and Dublin. Swissair can take you to Europe, the Middle and Far East, Africa and South America.

If you have to change planes, Switzerland is one of the most pleasant places to do it. As you would expect everything works with clockwork efficiency. Your short wait between flights gives you time to visit the tax-free shop or the numerous banking facilities.

You will also enjoy the benefits of Swissair in-flight service. Business travellers still have the choice of our traditional First Class or Economy and in either class service levels are designed to meet their requirements. This means full fare passengers can select their seats in advance when booking for either class – and have the advantages claimed for the so-called “special class” sections operated by many of our competitors often at higher fares.

We can give you other reasons for taking Swissair on your next trip; and an even longer list of out of the way places where, again, no British airline ventures. For instance: Algiers, Annaba, Bucharest, Kinshasa or Libreville.

And, of course, wherever you go, we'll give you the real Swissair.
