VISIT TO THE

Verkehrshaus der Schweiz
Schweizerisches Museum für Verkehr und Fortschritt
Museum Suisse des Transport et des Communications
Museum Svizzera dei Trasporti e delle Comunicazioni

VERKEHRSHAUS

WEDNESDAY 22 AUGUST 2001

Everything now seems to be planned for this visit to go ahead. We will start by gathering at the entrance, before sampling the self – service restaurant for lunch and chat followed by a look round for as long as you like right up to after closing time. The editor informs me that it would be also definitely be a good idea to have a group photograph for Swiss Express.

One minor change. A significant number of trains arrive at Luzern shortly before midday. There is a connecting ship from the landing stage opposite the station arriving at the Verkehrshaus at 12.13. The group will gather immediately after the arrival of the ship, though I will be there rather earlier.

Do bring your family, it has always been intended to be a gathering for husbands, wives, partners and children as well and the Verkehrshaus is far more than a railway museum. An IMAX cinema, an art gallery and other exciting exhibits make their contribution Two years ago my family were able to watch me try to shovel coal at the same rate as a professional fireman (and then, after laughing at Dad, discovering for themselves that it was not so easy after all!) before the children took to the pirate ship and we all went on to enjoy the marble run.

See you there!
