2. An intruder in Bergün! Marco and Romy Schmidt had the idea of buying an old railway wagon to be the direct sales shop for their organic farm products. Nothing was available from the RhB but this Fahrradwagen from the Appenzeller Bahn was found instead. Built in 1908 by the (VBC) Vereinigte Bahn Chur as a wooden bodied six-wheeler, it was converted to its current form to carry cycles by the AB in 1962.
