1. Heidi Marriott was lucky to see ex RHB G3/4 'Madlaina' at Interlaken Ost on 20/9/2015.
 2. BLM Xrolm X25 at Mürren. Photo: Robin Oakley
 3. As a comparison to No. 4, this is L'Isle-Mont-la-Ville in 2011 (from the opposite direction). Photo: Bremgarten
 4. Richard Parker sent in this 1907 shot of the BAM terminus at L'Isle-Mont-la-Ville.
 5. Mark Fox had a work meeting on the 34th floor of the 'Prime Tower', the tallest building in Switzerland, next to Zürich Hauptbahnhof and its approaches could keep Dave Howsam or Peter Marriott busy for a while.
 6. One of the more unusual pleasure boats on Lac Lemán.
 7. Showing that our members certainly get around. On a visit to Chongjin, North Korea in October 2015, Rob Boyce saw 2 ex-Swiss (possibly BLS) coaches in use. Carriage number 50 63 17 73 040-2 may mean something to the rolling stock experts.

 8. On a 2015 organised trip to the Hartz Mountains, Phil Crews and Co. had the use for a day of this ex-Post Auto Saurer bus. The company owning this one also has another in original yellow livery.
 9. Gordon Bannister saw this Railpool 187 No. 008 at Erstfeld on 12/2/2016. Yet again there is the strange habit of writing adverts in English!
 10. We all become accustomed to tourists wanting to take their "selfies" in front of the trains, but imagine this happy couples' surprise when this group of un-related visitors decided to join in the wedding photos at the Lion of Luzern and then rush off to their next "must see" location.
